Assumption of Risk, Waiver of Liability, and Indemnification Agreement

GENERAL WAIVER

Snowstar Corporation (hereafter referred to as SNOWSTAR) is a recreational snow sports facility that provides recreational opportunities that include, but are not limited to skiing, snowboarding, and snow tubing. We want you to understand that our sports, like other recreational activities, include inherent risks that can never be eliminated regardless of how much emphasis we place on reducing risk.

Definitions: MINOR PARTICIPANT - a child over whom the adult signing this document 1) has guardianship (including a parent) or 2) has assumed responsibility. RESPONSIBLE ADULT – an adult acting in place of and on behalf of said MINOR PARTICIPANTS.

Inherent Risks: SNOWSTAR feels it is important that all participants (ADULT PARTICIPANTS or MINOR PARTICIPANTS and/or RESPONSIBLE ADULTS) understand the nature of our sports and are aware of, understand, and appreciate the inherent risks involved.

- Skiing and snowboarding risks include, but are not limited to, collisions (with stationary objects such as trees, rocks, stumps, forest growth & debris, lift towers, fences, snowmaking equipment, snow vehicles, signs, and other manmade or natural obstacles; with other skiers/snowboarders); falls; landing awkwardly; over-exertion; failure to successfully complete a movement; loss of control (due to snow/ice conditions such as bare spots, black ice, moguls, terrain features; variations in surface and/or terrain conditions; slope design or modifications; and other hazards, whether manmade or natural, marked or unmarked); use of ski lifts, rope tows, and/or surface conveyor lifts; failure of equipment; and exposure to sometimes frigid conditions.
- Snow tubing risks include, but are not limited to, falling from the tube; collision with others and/or objects at the end of the lane; collision resulting from a tube crossing the lane divider into an adjoining lane; collision resulting from another tuber or group of tubers overtaking the participant; unexpected change of speed due to varying changes in snow conditions; participants having little control of their tube once the slide begins; failure of equipment; and use of surface conveyor lifts.
- Other inherent risks of skiing, snowboarding, and snow tubing include, but are not limited to, erratic or negligent behavior of the participant or of other participants; sudden changes in weather, weather-related occurrences, and acts of nature; and judgment errors by staff (including error in judging the ability of participants, failure to anticipate developing problem situations, and failure to anticipate sudden changes in weather conditions).
- Risks of observing and being on the premises for both the participant and non-participant include, but are not limited to, standing too close to run- out areas; being struck by skis, poles, boards, tubes, or other equipment; being struck by out-of-control skiers, snowboarders, or tubers; slipping and falling (on slick, wet, icy, or uneven spots, in restrooms and other indoor areas); slippery or uneven sidewalks, steps, and outdoor surfaces; and various parking lot hazards such as vehicle traffic and unsure footing.

It is important that all participants (ADULT PARTICIPANTS, MINOR PARTICIPANTS and/or RESPONSIBLE ADULTS) understand that injuries can occur as the result of these inherent risks, which include, but are not limited to muscle strains and sprains, bruises, contusions, abrasions, sunburn, muscle soreness, broken bones, ligament and joint injuries, back and neck injuries, concussions, internal injuries, eye injuries, brain injury; spinal cord and back injuries, heart attack, stroke, and even death.
